AIHMS HOMOEOPATHY or Aditya Institute of Homoeopathic Medical Sciences is the first Homoeopathic multi-specialty healthcare chain to operate in Kerala under corporate governance. In this venture, AIHMS HOMOEOPATHY associates with RECKEWEG & CO. GERMANY, the global leaders in Homoeopathic therapeutics and research, present in more than 40 countries.

AIHMS HOMOEOPATHY provides specialty Homoeopathic treatment under 20 major disciplines with advanced infrastructure, highly qualified and experienced medical team and Homoeopathic medicines of international standards. Presently located at 7 locations across the state [Kannur, Calicut, Pantheerankav, Perinthalmanna, Thrissur, Cochin, Trivandrum], AIHMS spreads soon to major south Indian towns like Bangalore, Kavi and Chennai apart from its proposed centre at every district in Kerala.

AIHMS HOMOEOPATHY also aims at opening up centers across Middle-East, Muscat to start with where Homoeopathy is the most sought complementary medical system and growing in popularity at an ever increasing pace. At Oman, AIHMS HOMOEOPATHY joins hands with Atlas Star Medical Centre [ASMC] in its operations.

AIHMS HOMOEOPATHY look forward to tele-medicine in Homoeopathy and advanced Homoeopathic education joining hands with leading European academic institutions and offering clinical trainings and teachings from world famous Homoeopaths using latest tele-communication techniques. Further, AIHMS HOMOEOPATHY launches its AIHMS ACADEMY which focuses on its academic ventures and to develop the infrastructure and academic expertise for the same by in-sourcing an experienced faculty.

Centres at Cochin, Trivandrum, Calicut & Kannur

AIHMS HOMOEOPATHY also plans to set up a charitable healthcare chain across the state in every district under its management which shall deliver effective homoeopathic treatment for the poor and unprivileged free of cost.
