

Fourth BHMS Organon Question Papers
Calicut University
2008 – 2009

FINAL YEAR B.H.M.S. DEGREE EXAMINATION, Feb 2009

ORGANON OF MEDICINE Paper. 1

Essay:

1. Write briefly on essential differences between Homeopathy and Allopathy. (10 marks)
2. Write in detail about origin and development of Homeopathy in India. (10 marks)

Short answers:

3. Contributions of Boenninghausen.
4. Palliation—Explain how homeopathy palliation is different than palliation by Antipathy.
5. Tenth observation of Dr. J.T. Kent.
6. What are the subjective symptoms ? Explain with examples.
7. How susceptibility decides potency?
8. Brief history of Indian Medicine.
9. Physical general symptom and pathological general symptom.
10. Contributions of C.M. Boger.
11. Symptoms expressed at Mental plan. Explain the types with example.
12. PQRS. Symptom. (10 x 5 = 50 marks)

Very short answers:

13. Mention three criterias for selecting low potency.
14. Importance of general symptom.
15. Accessory symptoms.
16. Albrecht Von Hailer.
17. Define suppression.
18. Third observation of Dr. J.T. Kent.
19. Complete symptom with example.
20. Father of Indian Homeopathy.
21. Danger of too large dose.
22. School life of Hahnemann. (10 x 3 = 30 marks)

ORGANON OF MEDICINE Paper. 11

Essay:

1. Explain the characteristic features of Tubercular Miasm under (a) Mind (b) Cardiovascular system ; (c) Respiratory system (d) Glandular system. (10 marks)
2. Write an essay on:
"The Art of Interrogation". (10 marks)

Short answers

3. Compare symptoms at the region of Heart in Psora and syphilitic miasm.
4. "Homoeopathy is an Art"—Explain.
5. Discuss in detail how Dr. Stuart Close treats leprosy and Tuberculosis as is related to Psora under Theoretical Medicin c.
6. Explain how the case has to be analysed before arriving at the final prescription.
7. Latent Psora.
8. Case taking in (1) Infants ; (ii) Insane people.
9. What is the message given by Dr. Stuart Close by explaining the experiment carried out by Robert Koch in connection with Cholera ?
10. Qualities of a Ideal prover for drug proving.
11. Individual similarity according to Richard Hughes.
12. Susceptibility—Its role in Rrecovery and Cure. (10 x 5 = 50 marks)

Very Short Answers

13. Mention four antisyphilitic remedies.
11. Mention three characteristic general modalities of sycotic miasm.
15. Deficiency miasm.
16. Latent Psora.
17. Spurious syphilis.
18. Law of causation.
19. Remedy reaction.
20. Psoric eye compliants.
21. Modalities in headache of psoric miasm.
22. Temperament. (10 x 3 = 30 marks)

ORGANON OF MEDICINE Paper. 1

Essay:

1. Describe in detail the state of 18th Century medicines in relation to the then existing principles of allopathy.
2. What are the different systems of medicine ? Write the advantages and disadvantages of each system. (2 x 10 20 marks)

Short Answers

3. Restoration of Health—Explain.
4. Conversion of Boenninghausen to Homeopathy.
5. Negative general symptoms.
6. Garth Boericke's contribution to Homoeopathy.
7. First observation of Kent—Explain.
8. Indications to increase the potency while treating a case.
9. Basic symptoms and alternative symptoms.
10. John Martin Honingberger.
11. What is the turning point in the life of M.L. Sircar which influenced him to become homoeopathic?
12. What are the editorial points essential for a Homoeopathic physician besides the clinical diagnosis? (10 x 5= 50 marks)

Very Short Answers:

13. Define Totality of symptoms.
14. Write any three important books written by Hahnemann.
15. Key-note prescription.
16. Trinity of life.
17. Drug, medicine, remedy.
18. 9th observation of Dr. J.T. Kent.
19. Contribution of C.M. Boger.
20. Books written by Dr. Richard Hughes.
21. Isopathy founder an principle.
22. Name three Indian pioneers in Homoeopathy. (10 x 3 30 marks)

FINAL YEAR B.H.M.S. DEGREE EXAMINATION, JUNE 2009
ORGANON OF MEDICINE, PRINCIPLES OF HOMOEOPATHIC PHILOSOPHY (Paper - I)

SECTION -- A

1. Explain one sided diseases. What will be your line of management in case of local maladies ? 15
2. Give a short account of the following: a) Law of Dosage.
b) Negative Generals. c) 5`h observation.
d) Alternation of remedies.
e) Cognate remedies. (5x4=20 Marks)
3. Write very brief notes on : a) General stimuli.
b) Nature of Science of Therapeutics. c) Organopathic remedies.
d) Antipraxy.
e) `Ideal Homoeopathy'. (5x3=15 Marks)

SECTION - B

4. Explain the selection of Potency in Homoeopathic practice. 15
5. Write short notes on :
a) Limitations of Homoeopathy. b) Antidotes.
c) Susceptibility and Immunity. d) Formative intelligence.
e) Alternating diseases. (5x4=20 Marks)
6. Explain briefly :
a) Errors of Totality.
b) Requirements of cure.
c) Pathology and Pathological anatomy. d) 'Spec ifickering'.
e) Seat of action. (5x3=15 Marks)

FINAL YEAR B.H.M.S. DEGREE EXAMINATION, JUNE 2009.
ORGANON OF MEDICINE, PRINCIPLES OF HOMOEOPATHIC PHILOSOPHY (Paper - II)

SECTION -- A

1. Explain the concept of `Mental diseases' and their treatment in Homoeopathy. 15
2. Give a short account of the following.
a) Enantipathy,
b) Law of causation
c) Art of Generalization. d) Phenomenology.
e) First grade symptom. (5x4=20)
3. Write very brief notes on:
a) Medicine and Remedy b) Health and disease.
c) Cognates and Compliments. d) Characteristic Symptoms
e) Generic dynamic action. (5x3=15)

SECTION - B

4. Explain the nature and limits of science of therapeutics. 15

5. Write short notes on:

a) Distinctive appellations. b) Causa occasionalis.

c) Genus epidemicus d) Sphere of similia.

e) Drug potential. (5x4=20)

6. Explain briefly:

a) Physiological action, b) Direction of cure.

c) `Circle of Sciences'. d) Dynamic.

e) Adaptation. (5x3=15)

www.similima.com